| agreement about the principles for election of Foundation-elected board members. Additionally, the Chairman maintains a list of potential candidates based on submitted suggestions. |

2.3.3. It is recommended that members of the board of trustees be appointed on the basis of their personal qualities and competences, taking into account the collective competences of the board and, when composing and nominating new members of the board, the need for introducing new talent be weighed against the need for continuity and the need for diversity be considered in relation to commercial and grant experience, age and gender.

| See the above article 2.3.2. |

2.3.4. It is recommended that, in the trustees statement in the annual report and on the enterprise foundation’s website, there be an account of the composition of the board of trustees, including its diversity, and that the following information be provided on each board member:

| An overview of the recommended information is published in the Foundation’s Annual Report and on the Foundation’s website: www.rambollfonden.com |
- the name and position of the member;
- the age and gender of the member;
- date of original appointment to the board, whether the member has been re-elected, and expiry of the current election period;
- any special competences possessed by the member;
- other managerial positions held by the member, including positions on executive boards, boards of directors and supervisory boards and board committees in Danish and foreign foundations, enterprises and institutions, as well as other demanding organization tasks;
- whether the member has been appointed by authorities/providers of grants etc.; and
- whether the member is considered independent.

| 2.3.5. It is recommended | The Foundation follows this | that the majority of the members of the board of trustees of the enterprise foundation not also be members of the board of directors or executive board of the foundation’s subsidiary or subsidiaries, unless it is a fully owned actual holding company.

3.1. It is recommended that the members of the board of trustees of enterprise foundations be remunerated with a fixed remuneration and that members of a possible executive board be remunerated with a fixed remuneration, possibly combined with a bonus which should not be dependent upon accounting results. The remuneration should reflect the work and responsibilities consequential to the position.

The Chairman of the Foundation receives DKK 525,000
The Deputy Chairman of the Foundation receives DKK 350,000 Additional Board members receive DKK 175,000.

3.2. It is recommended that the annual report provide information about the full remuneration received by each member of the board of trustees and executive board (if relevant) from the enterprise foundation and from other enterprises in the company. Furthermore, there should be information on any other remuneration which members of the board of trustees, except for employee representatives, have received for performing tasks for the foundation, subsidiaries of the foundation or enterprises in the same company as the foundation.

The Board members that are employed in the Ramboll Group receive their regular salaries.
